About our Instructors

Music & Storytelling ■

Shannon Kingsbury is a singer, harpist, composer, and educator. Shannon has taught with many outstanding arts organizations including: Kingsbury Music, Guelph Dance Arts Explosion Camps, Creativity Greenhouse, Season Singers, Musikgarten of Guelph and Waterside Arts. Shannon holds certificates in Early Childhood Music, Orff, Voice, Music Theory and Kodaly. Little campers will love using their voices, bodies, small instruments, and props in creative music play. The energetic music session will be followed by an enchanting visit to the "magic dressing room" for stories.

Creative Movement ■ ■

After studying at Concordia and York Universities, Les Ateliers de Dance Moderne de Montreal, and The School of Toronto Dance Theatre, Lynette Segal has worked professionally in choreographed and improvisational dance performances. In addition to solo work, she has worked collaboratively with Ben Grossman, Susanna Hood, Karen Kaeja, Janet Johnson, Susan Lee, Yves Candreau, Lisa Nelson (USA), the late Oliver Schroer, Rebecca Todd, and Miranda Tufnell (UK). Her study in somatic movement systems includes Mitzvah, Feldenkrais, Alexander techniques, and Body-Mind Centering. In the spring of 2009, she co-founded Fall on Your Feet, a movement collective based in Guelph focused on teaching and performing movement improvisation. www.lynettesegal.com

Visual Arts ■ ■ ■

Adrienne Spier is a multidisciplinary artist and educator who has exhibited her work across Canada and internationally. She has an MFA from Concordia University, completed the Independent Studio Program at the Toronto School of Art, and has a BA in Fine Art from University of Guelph. She is a qualified teacher, and has been teaching art for over twenty years to children and adults at a variety of schools, camps, and after school programs. She looks forward to exploring a variety of visual materials with campers this March Break. www.adriennespier.com

Theatre ■ ■ ■

Courtney Riddell fell in love with theatre when she studied at an arts high school and majored in theatre. She then studied musical theatre at the Randolph Academy of Performing Arts. After she graduated, she taught after school classes with Stage Kids and started directing full children's musicals. She also worked as a children's birthday party entertainer and travelled Ontario doing theatre for kids. Since moving to Guelph, she has worked with First Light Theatre as a teacher, director, programme co-ordinator and more. She has recently started her own musical theatre class in Guelph and has been performing a one-woman show for kids all over Guelph and the surrounding area.

Rise Up Singing! ■ ■

Carey West is a musician and educator whose work focuses on roots music traditions. For the last 15 years she has provided vocals for a diverse selection of bands working in genres such as Jazz, Blues, Reggae, Ska, Bluegrass, and Folk. Carey studied music education at The Royal Conservatory of Music where she completed Orff Levels I & II. Working as a music specialist in elementary schools for the last decade, she enjoys sharing her experience as a performer in order to lead students towards successful self-expression using poetry, movement, percussion, and voice. Carey was a great addition to the Guelph Dance Arts Explosion Camp this summer and we look forward to having her back!

Contemporary Dance ■

Guelph-based dance artist Katie Ewald received her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance from Concordia University and studied at P.A.R.T.S. (Performing Arts Research and Training Studios) in Brussels. She has collaborated with choreographers Ame Henderson/Public Recordings, Martin Bélanger/LAPS, k.g. Guttman, Lin Snelling, Chanti Wadge, Janet Johnson/Portal Dance Projects, and worked with Daniel Léveillé Danse from 2005-2008. She performed with the experimental theatre company Forced Entertainment in The Voices from 2003-2005. In 2000, she was the only dancer nominated for The Canada Council for the Arts Fund for Future Generations Millennium Prize. She has taught dance workshops across Canada and is currently collaborating on a new duet with Toronto dance artist Mairead Filgate.

Other Important Information

Drop-off, Pick-Up, and Complimentary Before & After Camp Care

All campers should be dropped off at the River Run Centre by 9:25 am, and picked up at the River Run Centre at 3:30 pm, unless pre- and post-camp care is required. This service is offered free of charge from 8:30 am-9:30 am & 3:30 pm-4:30 pm daily. Extra post-camp care is offered from 4:30-5:30 pm daily, for a charge of $5 per day or $25 for the whole week. Please make note of any pre- or post-camp care needs on your registration form.

What to Bring to Camp

Please ensure your child brings the following items to camp with them each day:

- ☞ A nut-free lunch & two nut-free snacks
- ☞ A labelled water bottle
- ☞ Loose-fitting clothing that allows for freedom of movement and possible paint stains
- ☞ Weather-appropriate clothing: part of lunch hour will be spent outside, so children may get muddy, snowy or wet - and anything in between.
