Guelph Dance Announces the 2013 Guelph Dance Festival Line-up!

Guelph, ON (Apr 2, 2013) – This is a big year for Guelph Dance: we celebrate 15 years of bringing the best of contemporary dance to the Guelph community. And we re-branded from Guelph Contemporary Dance Festival to our new name and logo.

Guelph Dance Festival soars to new heights with one of our most enthralling and diverse years ever! From Thursday May 30 to Sunday June 2 we will jump, collide, and dance through the streets, parks and stages of Guelph. Tensions will flare, rhythms will surge, beauty will unfold. The human condition will be revealed, revered, and redeemed. Artists from Quebec City to Vancouver, from Dallas, Texas to our own Guelph, with many points in between, will push the bar of contemporary dance.

On Stage A, Dark Circles Contemporary Dance comes all the way from Dallas via Seoul, Korea to challenge our ideas on fate, while Vancouver's 605 Collective reclaims the animal body with raw, unbridled energy. On Stage B, Alan Lake from Quebec City gives us an intimate cheek-to-cheek, and Montreal's Mayday explores the many fragile points between desolation and beauty.

Our In the Park series features everything from the rough-and-tumble to the exquisite in four eclectic pieces. Compagnie Danse Nyata Nyata from Montreal imagines a ravishing opera. Dance meets contact-sport in a rambunctious public ritual by Vancouver's 605 Collective. Montreal's Parts+Labour_Danse joins us again with an homage to absurdist drama. And Ritmo Flamenco from Toronto merges the mesmerizing beats of flamenco with the daring of contemporary dance.

In the Studio features Toronto's Tracey Norman exploring the "observation theory" and Calgary's Jaune Fraiche examining the disjointed world of the subconscious.
