A Few Spots Left in Arts Explosion March Break Camp!

Guelph, ON (Feb 24, 2014) – March Break is just around the corner, and lucky for you, we still have a few spots left in our popular Arts Explosion Camps for children ages 4-13! With professional artists and educators facilitating each session, we often sell out. Our camps are a great chance to immerse your children in a day or full week of invaluable arts programming!

Campers in the Orange Group (born 2008 and 2009) can experience a half-day of creative movement with Lynette Segal, singing and storytelling with Shannon Kingsbury, and visual art with Janet Morton.

Campers in the Red (born 2006 and 2007) and Blue (born 2003, 2004, and 2005) Groups can look forward to a full day including hip hop with Carolyn Hebert, Glee Club singing with Shannon Kingsbury, contemporary dance with special guest artist Jasmin McGraw, and visual art with Janet Morton.

Campers in the Green Group (born 2000, 2001, and 2002) take part in our full-day Dance Focus program, including a morning of contemporary dance technique and repertoire with special guest artist Jasmin McGraw, and an afternoon of hip hop with Carolyn Hebert and visual art with Janet Morton.

For more information about our fabulous instructors and why they are excited to teach your campers, check out our blog: <http://guelphdance.blogspot.ca/>.
