Guelph Dance Presents Tara Luz Danse at March 5th CSA Nooner

Guelph, ON (Feb 26, 2014) – The CSA Nooner, a free event co-produced by Guelph Dance and the University of Guelph Central Student Association, is excited to present Tara Luz Danse!

On Wednesday, March 5 at 12pm, the student hub of the University Centre Courtyard, University of Guelph, will become a playground for Ottawa choreographer Anik Bouvrette and her dancers. En studio avec nous combines the presentation of excerpts from Les billes and Hippopotame with audience participation and live music.

Les billes (marbles) presents a world born from Bouvrette's imagination, a world inspired by dreams and filled with curiosity, wonder, and light. It is a piece inspired by a game Bouvrette plays where she says, "When I close my eyes, in my imagination, I see..." Hippopotame is an improvisation-based piece performed to live music, which explores various concepts of movement in dance.

About Guelph Dance

Established in 1998, Guelph Dance is a nationally recognized leader in contemporary dance, offering a platform for professional, new-generation, and youth dance artists to share their vision, push creative boundaries, and engage community audiences. Our co-productions, like this CSA Nooner, greatly enhance our outreach efforts by exposing dance to a diverse and broad audience, while providing excellent performance opportunities and exposure for dance artists.
