Guelph Dance Announces New General Manager

Guelph, ON (June 16, 2015) – Guelph Dance is pleased to announce that Kit Clark has officially joined the organization as its new General Manager, effective June 16, the beginning of the new fiscal year. Kit has 20 years of experience in arts administration, including 10 years directing a contemporary dance festival in the Washington, DC metro area. In addition, Kit is a dancer and yoga instructor, and she holds a Master of Fine Arts in Dance from Smith College in Massachusetts.

“I am thrilled to have found kindred spirits in Catrina and Janet and the whole dance community here,” Ms. Clark says. “I am looking forward to working with them to position Guelph Dance for growth over the coming years.”

Co-founders Catrina von Radecki and Janet Johnson are continuing as Co-Artistic Directors with Catrina also serving as Festival Manager and Janet in the role of Outreach Manager. Kit’s role as General Manager will involve financial administration, marketing management, fund development, and relationship management.

Office Manager and Publicist Lindsay Morris, who has served the organization for the past four seasons, will be moving to Toronto to complete her graduate studies in dance and business administration.

Guelph Dance has just concluded its 17th season, with record audience attendance. The 2015-16 year is underway with a full year of events planned, including numerous outreach activities, co-productions, and the ever-popular Festival.

About Guelph Dance

Established in 1998, Guelph Dance is a nationally recognized leader in contemporary dance, offering a platform for professional, new-generation, and youth dance artists to share their vision, push creative boundaries, and engage community audiences.

Guelph Dance gratefully acknowledges the support of its funders: the Department of Canadian Heritage, the Canada Council for the Arts, the Ontario Arts Council, the Ontario Trillium Foundation, and the City of Guelph.
