Guelph Dance Festival presents Behind the Scenes of Dance

Guelph, ON (May 21, 2013) – Please join us this Saturday May 25 at 4:00pm at The Bookshelf as Guelph Dance Festival presents Behind the Scenes of Dance.

In anticipation of the Guelph Dance Festival, we will feature Vaughn Barclay's documentary Heart at Night: David Earle in Guelph, an intimate portrait of contemporary dance legend, David Earle, one of Canada's most beloved choreographers and a pioneer in modern dance.

This screening will be followed by a short documentary about the Guelph Dance Festival by Michele Ayoub, featuring performance footage and interviews with dance artists from last year's Guelph Contemporary Dance Festival.

Dance artists Lynette Segal and Georgia Simms—featured in this year's Local Initiatives series—will share personal stories about their creative process.

Join us for this intimate look through film and talk "behind the scenes" of creating contemporary dance.
