Noon-Hour Dance Performance on November 27

Guelph, ON (November 20, 2014) – Frog in Hand of Mississauga, Ontario joins us on Thursday, November 27 with excerpts from two highly theatrical pieces for the next installment of the popular CSA Nooner series.

Checkmate is an epic dance battle inspired by chess that celebrates the hero in all of us. Who will you cheer for – and who will win? Inspired by a speakeasy atmosphere and the Jazz Age, Café Noisette creates tension and excitement with dance, theatre, stage combat, thematic music and period costumes, along with a few surprises!

Don't miss this high-energy hour of dance on November 27 at noon in the University Centre Courtyard at the University of Guelph. This event is co-presented with the Central Students' Association and is free to the public.

About Guelph Dance

Established in 1998, Guelph Dance—formerly the Guelph Contemporary Dance Festival—is a nationally recognized leader in contemporary dance, offering a platform for professional, new-generation, and youth dance artists to share their vision, push creative boundaries, and engage community audiences.

Guelph Dance gratefully acknowledges the support of its funders: the Department of Canadian Heritage, the Canada Council for the Arts, the Ontario Arts Council, the Ontario Trillium Foundation, and the City of Guelph.
