Emerging Artist Jasmyn Fyffe to perform at University of Guelph

Guelph, ON (November 13, 2015) – Guelph Dance and the Central Student Association at the University of Guelph are co-presenting Toronto-based choreographer Jasmyn Fyffe and her company on Thursday, November 26 as part of the University's CSA Nooner series. The free performance takes place at 12 pm in the University Centre Courtyard.

Fyffe's company will perform "Pulse," a dance inspired by the soulful sounds of Motown. This contemporary work takes us back to an era when music was felt deep down in the soul, and it explores our affinity for human interaction as dancers ride an emotional landscape of conflicting needs and desires. A mix of high-energy sequences and intimate moments, "Pulse" will have you on your feet dancing and then humming the tunes long after the show is over.

Jasmyn Fyffe is described as "a young artist whose body of work is developing in a style all her own." Her company is committed to pushing boundaries and to creating a distinct and strong voice in the arts community. She was the recipient of the 2013 Frankie Award (Montreal) for most outstanding choreography/choreographer for "Pulse."
