Guelph Dance Announces Call for Submissions for Youth Moves Series

Guelph, ON (October 26, 2015) – Guelph Dance is pleased to announce its call for submissions for Youth Moves, scheduled to take place June 5, 2016, during the 18th Annual Guelph Dance Festival. Youth Moves is the popular contemporary dance series featuring young performers on the stage at the River Run Centre. All Canadian youth dance companies with performers under the age of 19 are eligible to apply. The proposed choreography must be by a professional choreographer and be less than 10 minutes long. Submission details, including the application form, can be found at www.guelphdance.ca/festival/call/. The deadline for submissions is Tuesday, December 1, 2015.

Electronic submissions are encouraged, although mailed applications will still be accepted. In addition to the application form, applicants need to supply a link to an online video (or send a Mac-compatible DVD), all relevant CVs, and their membership payment (which can be done via PayPal through our website).
