Call for Artists: 4Chambers Project

Guelph, ON (October 7, 2014) – Guelph Dance is partnering with Jody Oberfelder Projects of New York City on a piece for the 2015 Guelph Dance Festival. 4Chambers is an intimate, sensorial journey, witnessed by only 12 audience members at a time. Show Business Weekly called it “an opportunity to feel alive”.

Jody is looking for 3 strong, agile, fearless, and personable dancers who are interested in creating this experience for the audience, along with 3 dancers travelling in from NYC. Interested dancers should send a video clip, whether its from a performance or improvisation in the studio, to Jody at jody@jodyoberfelder.com. More information on the project can be found at www.jodyoberfelder.com/4chambers.php.

Guelph Dance would like to thank the Guelph Community Foundation for their generous support of this initiative, which will strengthen the local dance community through artistic exchange.

About Guelph Dance

Established in 1998, Guelph Dance—formerly the Guelph Contemporary Dance Festival—is a nationally recognized leader in contemporary dance, offering a platform for professional, new-generation, and youth dance artists to share their vision, push creative boundaries, and engage community audiences.

Guelph Dance gratefully acknowledges the support of its funders: the Department of Canadian Heritage, the Canada Council for the Arts, the Ontario Arts Council, the Ontario Trillium Foundation, and the City of Guelph.
